ORDERING INFORMATION page 35

Dear Readers,

To serve you better, we offer our 2019 Supplement to Word of Life Press Ministries 2018 Book Catalog. Listed here are the new publications since that last catalog. Included are reprints of titles that have been out of print for a time. For any changes since the following catalogs were printed: 2018 Book Catalog, 2018 Bible and Software Catalog, 2018 Tract Catalog, 2018 AV Catalog and 2018 Music Catalog see the new 2019 editions of those catalogs. The catalogs give information in English about WLPM publications in Japanese. We include photos of the covers of all new publications since the previous catalog, as well as new covers for revised or new editions of back list titles.

Our desire is to make our Book Catalog easy to use, so this Supplement provides additional indexes. Please read the directions in How To Find A Book at the beginning of each index that tell how to use the indexes for finding books.

Regarding English titles: If the book or video was originally published in English, the original English title is used. If it was first published in Japanese, the English title we have given it for our catalogs is either an approximate translation of the Japanese title or something expressing the content of the publication.

Yours for Christ and his kingdom,
Don E. Regier

I.B.2. Bible & Doctrinal Study Books, Commentaries

All of God's Plan, Shinichiro Kai. What is God's plan for humans? God, who is our creator, ruler and finisher, revealed his plan in the Bible through the Old Testament era and the New Testament era as a plan for establishing a healthy nation and for providing personal salvation from sin. This overall plan for salvation transcends human wisdom and is what the author invites us to think about with him. Distributed by Word of Life Press. B6 size, 240

pp. ISBN 978-4-264-03919-8 (Kami no Gokeikaku no Zentai)

Bible Passages We Can Understand for the First Time by Reading in the Original Languages, Takamitsu Muraoka. There are Bible passages and episodes where it is hard to understand the meaning and nuance of the words. But we can understand if we look at the Hebrew, Aramaic and Greek words in which they were originally written. A5 size, 192 pp. ISBN 978-4-264-04067-5 (Seisho o Gengo de Yondemite Hajimete Wakaru Koto) (18690) ¥1,600+

Case for Christ, The, Lee Strobel. Ripa Books reprint. A defense of Jesus' divinity, from interviews with experts, by a former atheist who asks the tough questions skeptics ask. He is a former legal affairs reporter for the Chicago Tribune who shares the process by which he became a Christian. He urges readers to evaluate the evidence for Christ like the evidence used in court cases to discover the truth. B6* size, 480 pp. ISBN978-4-264-02183-4

(Nazare no Iesu wa Kami no Ko ka?) (01375) ¥2,900+

Challenge of Jesus, The, N. T. Wright. Rediscovering who Jesus was and is. When the Lord Jesus taught us to pray "may His will be done on the earth as it is in heaven", what did He exactly mean? By examining the Bible and the documents from the 2nd Temple time, the author takes us right into the various challenges of those days and the time we live now. The challenge is to grow in our understanding of the historical Jesus within the Palestinian world of the first century, and to follow Jesus more faithfully into the postmodern world of the twenty-first century. B6 size, 400 pages. ISBN 978-4-264-03966-2 (Iesu no Chōsen) (02370) ¥2,500+

Getting the Gospel Right, Cornelius P. Venema. Every generation of Christian believers faces the challenge of proclaiming the gospel of Jesus Christ with integrity and in conformity to the teaching of the Scriptures. But what do the Scriptures teach with regard to the central message of the gospel? Were the Reformers correct to insist that the good news of God's gracious and free acceptance of guilty sinners, on the basis of the obedience and atoning sacrifice of Christ, lies at the heart of the gospel? Or are we to accept the 'new perspectives' on Paul's teaching, which have been advocated in recent years by those who have made a fresh study of the relevant historical sources? Since the new perspectives challenge some of the basic features of the traditional Protestant understanding of justification, they require careful study and thoughtful evaluation. Nothing less than the shape of the evangelical church's proclamation of the gospel today is at stake. B6 size, 112 pages ISBN978-4-264-03961-7 (Pauro Kenkyū no Atarashii Shiten, Saiko) (02720) ¥1,300+

Home Bible Study Gospel of John, Volume 2: Chapters 6-10: Famous Preachers Explain the Words of Jesus Christ, Naoko Kanno, ed. In home Bible studies Kanno has shared explanations of John's Gospel chapters 6-10 from sermons of 20 famous expositors, including Chrysostom, Augustine, Aquinas, Luther, Wesley, Moody, Spurgeon, Lloyd-Jones, Kanzo Uchimura, Tadao Yanahara and Billy Graham. Hardcover. A5 size, 384 pp. ISBN 978-4-264-03899-3 (Katei Shūkai de Katarareta Yohane no Fukuinsho Dai 2 Kan: 6 sho-10 sho: Meicho Kara Yomitoku Iesu Kirisuto no Kotoba) (801568) ¥1,500+

Introducing Christian Doctrine, Millard J. Erickson. Abridged and less technical than his classic "Christian Theology," this edition retains Erickson's brilliant expositions on God, humanity, sin, atonement, and other doctrines as well as teaching aids and chapters on postmodernity and contemporizing the gospel. This survey of Christian theology and doctrine is biblical, contemporary, moderate, and fair to various positions. It is a practical and accessible resource that applies doctrine to Christian life and ministry. A5 size, 496 pp. ISBN978-4-264-04082-8 (Kirisutokyō Kyōri Nyūmon) (01319) ¥5,600+

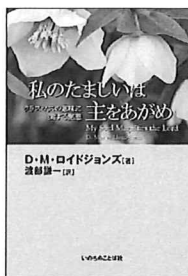

Lost World of Genesis One, The: Ancient Cosmology and the Origin Debate, John H. Walton. Using 18 formal propositions based on a rigorous study of the Hebrew word "bara" (create) and ancient Near Eastern literature, Walton constructs a compelling, provocative and original interpretation of Genesis 1. He argues that, Genesis 1 was written to show the people in that ancient Near Eastern world that the cosmos was created as a functioning temple where God takes up his residence as his headquarters from which he runs the world. The creation account is far more concerned with the cosmos being given its functions as God's temple than it is with the manufacture of the material structures of the earth and universe. It is not so concerned with modern people's questions of what can be learned from science regarding origins. So it sheds fresh light on the discussion of origins while recognizing the real authority of the Bible as God's

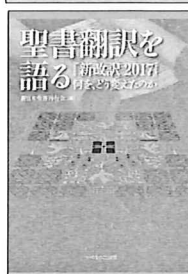

Word. A5 size, 200 pp. ISBN 978-4-264-03896-2 (Sōseiki Issho no Saihakken: Kodai no Sekai Kan de Seisho o Yomu)

(02310) ¥2,200+

My Soul Magnifies the Lord, D. Martyn Lloyd-Jones. Meditations on the meaning of Christmas by the beloved British preacher. Mary's song. B6 size, 144 pp. ISBN978-4-264-04002-6 (Watashi no Tamashii wa Shu o Agame: Kurisumasu no Imi ni Kansuru Mokushō) (02300) ¥1,300+

Sharing About the New Japanese Bible 2017 Translation, Shin Nihon Seisho Kankōkai. The translators share about how they revised the New Japanese Bible (Shinkaiyaku Seisho) into the new 2017 New Japanese Bible. The Bible is the eternal Best-seller around the world, affecting the culture, society and the people. This new translation was done with the most recent research and study, and you can now read the Bible with the modern contemporary words. A5 size, 160 pages. ISBN978-4-264-04023-1 (Seisho Honyaku o Kataru) (02260) ¥1,000+

Uchimura Kanzō Speaks Today: Studies in Romans Part 1, Uchimura Kanzō. Classic studies on Romans focusing on the gospel that transformed the world. This study is by Uchimura Kanzō (1861-1930), a major figure in Christian history in Japan. (In this book he courageously critiqued the growing militant nationalism of the Japanese government at the time based on his understanding of this gospel in Romans.) First published in 1924 when he was 63 years old. Now re-published using the New Japanese Bible 2017 (Shinkaiyaku 2017) text and re-edited by Shinobu Sasaki into more contemporary Japanese language. A5 size, 288 pp. ISBN 978-4-264-03955-6 (Gendai ni Kataru Uchimura Kanzō: Rōmasho no Kenkyū) (02320) ¥2,200+

Uchimura Kanzō Speaks Today: Studies in Romans Part 2, Uchimura Kanzō. A5 size, 320 pp. ISBN978-4-264-04031-6 (Gendai ni Kataru Uchimura Kanzō: Rōmasho no Kenkyū Ge) (02325) ¥2,500+

Various Kinds of Prayer in the Bible, Japan Bible Seminary Faculty. Studies on prayers starting with the Lord's Prayer, David's prayer, various kinds of prayers in the Gospel of Luke, as well as the special issues such as prayers for the dead person and prayers of curse. This book also deals with the "Pastoral Prayers" and "Public Prayers" sharing what the Bible says about these prayers. B6 size, 304 pp. ISBN78-4-264-04024-8 (Inori no Shosō: Seisho ni Manabu) (02280) ¥2,000+

Wild Christianity, Mitsuo Fukuda. Are we really presenting our Gospel to others? Aren't we too protective of our own believers, as though they are in an aquarium? Haven't our believers completely lost the strength and power to listen to God, and produce spiritual sons and daughters? How can we get back to receiving His strength, living in the Gospel, and sharing the Gospel? If you are in the aquarium, you get your food at certain times every day, and you don't have to work at it. However, Jesus is our

King – wild animal world King, and we have our hope and grace in Jesus. How can we get His strength, connect ourselves with Him, and multiply? B6* size, 192 pages. ISBN978-4-264-04006-4 (Yasei no Kirisutokyō) (02440) ¥1,400+

I. D. Death, End Times, Second Advent

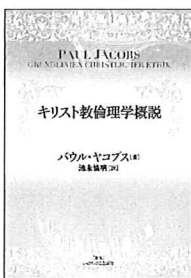

Preparation for Christian Death: With Guide, Ken Mizuno. Companion to a previous book of a similar title by this author. Here are pages for Christians to write out their own plans for their end of life and funeral so family members know their wishes and they can maintain their Christian witness even in death. These pages were part of the previous book but are here separate so people can write again when circumstances change over the years. They can also write their testimonies and share the blessings of their lives with others. Includes guide points with suggestions on how to write. B5 size, 48 pp. ISBN 978-4-264-03912-9 (Kurisuchan Endingu Nōto: Gaido Tsuki) (05330) ¥900+

I. E. Christian Thought (Ideology, Philosophy)

Japan's Religions and Christianity We Should Know, Masami Katsumoto. "I am interested in Christianity but there is too much you have to do." "Aren't all religions basically the same?" Why do so many people think this way about religion in Japan? An experienced pastor who studied at a Buddhist university compares three religions that are rooted in Japan: Shinto, Buddhism and Christianity. How do they differ, such as in funerals, etc., and how do they answer people's questions about truth and life? Non-Christians will appreciate a basically neutral comparison. Christians will find understanding so they know how to approach believers in other religions and think about how to live in this culture as Christians. B6 size, 128 pp. ISBN 978-4-264-03897-9 (Shitte Okitai Nihon no Shūkyō to Kirisutokyō) (15230) ¥1,200+

Overview of Christian Ethics, Paul Jacobs. Original German title: Grundlitten Christlicher Ethik. Traditional wonderful book by the famous German Presbyterian church theologian. In the world where we live now with lots of troubles and secularities, how should the churches and Christians keep our ethics? Based on the thorough study of the Bible, this book will help you reconsider the basics of Christian ethics and give you guidelines for how to live your daily life and marriage life. A5 size, 248 pages. ISBN978-4-264-03969-3 (Kirisutokyō Rinrigaku Gaisetsu) (801620) ¥2,500+

Soul Survivor, Philip Yancey. How did Yancey manage to survive spiritually despite early encounters with a racist, legalistic church that he now views as almost cultic? In this, his most soul-searching book yet, he probes that very question. Not only telling the story of his own struggle to reclaim belief, Yancey also provides glimpses of the faith journeys of 13 notable people who've modeled for him a life-enhancing rather than a life-constricting faith. These inspiring examples range from the scatterbrained journalist G. K. Chesterton to the tortured novelists Tolstoy and Dostoevsky, to contemporaries such as Martin Luther King, Jr., Annie Dillard and Shusaku Endō. B6* size, 512 pp. ISBN 978-4-264-03891-7 (Souru Sabaibah) (06520) ¥2,900+

Stones Also Cry Out, Megumi Enomoto. Signposts of the 70 years after WW2. The author shares essays on peace from the view of the Christian Ashram movement founded by his father, Yasurō Enomoto. Ashram meetings focus on listening to God's voice by reading a Bible passage and then discussing it with nobody as leader or speaker. So he shares meditations on Matthew 26: 47-50 and other passages. He also introduces an Okinawan peacemaker Shōko Ahagon and his work. He shares a biblical basis for peace, not a humanistic one. The context is present day Japan now in the process of breaking the peace of the post WW2 years in response to regional issues (N. Korea, etc). Christians need to speak out with a biblical view, or "the stones will cry out"(Lk.19:40). B6* size, 160 pp. ISBN 978-4-264-03918-1 (Ishikoro mo Sakebidasu) (06820) ¥1,300+

I. F. Evangelism, Disciplemaking, Pastoral & Educational Ministry

Cross and the Cherry Tree, The, Tadataka Maruyama. Cherry Trees are the symbol of Japan. On the other hand, the Cross was considered as "not-to-fit in Japan" since the Meiji Era. How do you consider this contrast? The author feels there is a very deep "Japanese thinking" behind the Cross (Christianity) and Cherry Trees (Japan). The author deals with this deep thought and challenges us Japanese Christians what our call is as a Japanese Christian. 46Ban size, 376 pp. ISBN978-4-264-04022-4 (Jūjika to Sakura: Kirisutokyō to Nihon no Setten ni Ikiru) (08900) ¥2,300+

Emotionally Healthy Leader, The, Peter Scazzero. Become a more effective leader by integrating who you are with what you do. Examining the intersection between leaders' inner lives and the "doing" of ministry. He explores four areas---your "shadow," marriage or singleness, relationship with Jesus, and Sabbath delight---to reveal how they affect your planning, decision making, team building, and more. B6 size, 560 pp. ISBN 978-4-264-04004-0 (Jōchoteki ni Kenkō na Riida Shinto o Mezashite) (06780) ¥2,800+

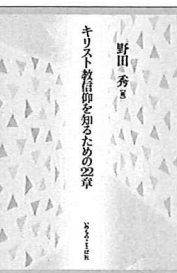

Life as a Pastor, Shigeru Noda. An experienced pastor shares his testimony of how he became a Christian and was called by God to be a pastor. He then reflects on his experience and what he has learned and offers advice to young pastors. B6 size, 144 pp. ISBN 978-4-264-03911-2 (Bokushi to Iu Ikikata) (08660) ¥1,300+

Mental Health for Pastors and Church Leaders, Yorihiro Kawamura. So pastors and laymen can walk together. Pastors often feel pressure from church members who have expectations of what a pastor should do, but the pastors themselves often put the even more pressure on themselves. Pastors must learn to take care of their mental health by pausing and playing and giving themselves a break. And church members can encourage them to do so. B6 size, 144 pp. ISBN978-4-264-04084-2 (Bokushi, Kyōkai Riidah no Tame no Mentaru Herusu) (08630) ¥1,300+

Strategy For Living, Edward R. Dayton & Ted W. Engstrom. Reprint. How to make the best use of your time and abilities. B6 size, 240 pp. ISBN 978-4-264-00142-0 (Jikan no Sekkyokuteki na Tsukaikata) (07321) ¥2,100+

Twenty-Two Chapters to Get to Know the Faith of Christians, Hide Noda. What meaning does the salvation of Jesus Christ have in "my" life? Of course, the salvation of Jesus Christ is the main theme of the Bible. Rev. Noda himself has been pastoring churches for 60 years. This is a good handbook to lead people to Christ. Also, you can use this book as the textbook for preparing for baptism and Bible studies. Good present. B6 size, 120 pp. ISBN 978-4-264-04050-7 (Kirisutokyō Shinkō o Shiru Tame no 22 Sho) (08650) ¥1,000+

I. G. Psychology, Counseling, Health

Be the Person Who Plants Seeds, Okio Hino. Being a doctor himself, the author says your sickness is not the end of your life, but the starting point to live for someone else. Taking the word from the Bible, he encourages those who are sick or suffering from various diseases and leads them into the life in which you can plant the seeds. Forest Books imprint. B6 size, 192 pp. ISBN978-4-264-04035-4 (Tane o Maku Hito ni Narinasai) (09490) ¥1300+

Facing the Real Me, Akira Fujikake. 100 Proverbs and 50 advice words to lead you into conversation. The author himself is a clinician with 21 years of experience facing criminal and juvenile delinquents, in addition to himself facing cancer for 10 years. He shares his experience how to face yourself, giving 100 proverbs to help you, as well as 50 ways of showing how to start your conversation with these people. B6 size, 256 pp. ISBN978-4-264-04051-4 (Shinjitsu no Jibun to Mukiau) (18370) ¥1,200+

Gentle Heart Is a Treasure, A, Tatsuu Fukui. The author spent many years caring for intellectually and emotionally handicapped people. Now retired he looks back on his life from his childhood. His family was part of the Omi Brotherhood under the leadership of Mr. and Mrs. William Merrill Vorhies (Hitotsuyanagi), who personified the gospel in their daily life as well as words. From them the author learned to value people, have a gentle heart toward others, be faithful in love, show Jesus' love in actions as well as words. B6 size, 208 pp. ISBN 978-4-264-03885-6 (Yasashii Kokoro wa Takaramono) (09950) ¥1,300+

Kids with Developmental Disabilities Are Becoming "Grown-up", Mami Mori. How can "kids with developmental disabilities" grow and get into society? The author herself is a school counselor and worked with these kids. How can we live in the society where everybody can say "each one is different, and each one is good".... the author challenges the reader. Forest Books imprint. Seeking a Church Where the Mentally Ill Are Included, Masami Katsumoto. The community nature and love and acceptance of churches are very attractive to people with mental illnesses. So many Japanese churches have these people. A pastor with 30 years experience deals with these questions: How can the church help them? What can these people do in the church? How can the pastor and lay people minister to them? What resources are available in society and medical community to help them? How can they be involved in the life of the church? B6 size, 128 pp. ISBN 978-4-264-03898-6 (Shōgaisha to Tomoni Ikiru Kyōkai o Mezashite) (09920) ¥1,200+

Warm Lives Need Other Warm Lives, Ikuru Fukui. Life is warm. But if we are alone it can cool down. So we need to come together and warm each other's lives. This is what the author has learned through living and working with severely handicapped people. They cannot live alone and need help. But we all need other people. We all need to learn to trust others and be trusted and this is learned in community. He lives this way as a Christian expressing God's love for these people. Includes photos. The cover design is adapted from paintings by handicapped people. B6 size, 114 pp. ISBN 978-4-264-03893-1 (Atatakai Inochi to Atatakai Inochi)

100 Bible Verses Everyone Should Know By Heart, Robert J. Morgan. Help for the challenge of memorizing Scripture in 10 minutes a day. With the immediacy of Internet searches and ease of handheld devices, the archaic custom of memorizing Scripture may not seem necessary. But author Robert J. Morgan makes an airtight case for reviving this practice. In a series of brief opening chapters, Morgan prepares the reader for this new way of thinking and then presents his list of 100 crucial verses, including sidebar notes, quotes, and memorization tips for each. Knowing his list will differ from what others would choose, extra pages are included to add one's own favorite verses, thus extending the exercise and memorization habit. Action Plan, Kim Dong Ouk. Decide to live purposefully to awaken your faith. The Christian's life and church life should not be self-centered. Instead believers need to break through the wall of self-centered living and open their hearts to others to serve them. Our purpose is to contribute to the kingdom of God, not just to feel good. We are not just receiving God's grace, but need to be sharing it with others. Share the gospel with those outside the church and intercede for others in and outside the church. Be a neighbor and weep with those who weep and rejoice together in the unity of Christ while sharing his love around. A5 size, 224 pp. ISBN 978-4-264-03922 (Akushon Puran) (14540) ¥2,300+

Good and Beautiful Community, The, James Brian Smith. Subtitle: Following the Spirit, Extending Grace, Demonstrating Love. This is the third volume in the "Exercise" series. 1st volume – was about entering the relationship with God, 2nd volume – how to live in God's Kingdom, and now this 3rd volume is on how to live in relationship with others as apprentices of Jesus. Apprentices of Jesus are not part-time do-gooders. They live in continuous contact with the kingdom of God, and are constantly men and women in whom Christ dwells. They do not sometimes tell the truth, sometimes live sacrificially or sometimes forgive. There are myriad opportunities for us to impact the world in which we live. Yet many times we tend to emphasize personal faith over social justice or vice versa. Smith shows us how to bring spiritual formation and community engagement together, and then once again offers spiritual practices that root new, true narratives about God and the world in our souls. His insight and humility as a fellow learner with us will lead us to live in authentic ways as a good and beautiful community of Christ-followers, shining the light of the Spirit into every relationship. Our Image of God and the World of Grace, Yorihiro Kawamura. Our image of God affects our character, life pattern and the way we read the Bible. But that image may be what we received as children and may not be biblical or adequate for us as adults. From his experience as a psychologist, the author invites the reader into a world of grace where that image is transformed through the freedom we have in Christ resulting in a walk of faith. How do we communicate a more accurate image to children as well as youth and adults? Charts and illustrations help to visualize the concepts. B6 size, 112 pp. ISBN 978-4-264-03915-0 (Kamisama Imehji to Megumi no Sekai) (18550) ¥1,000+

What Is the Trinity? R. C. Sproul. Crucial Questions Series. The Trinity is truly a mystery. This doctrine teaches that the God of Christianity is one in His essence but three in His persons--the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Though the word Trinity is not found in the Bible, there is no doubt that the Scriptures teach this triune nature of God. Christians worship one God who manifests Himself in three distinct persons. Sproul deals with objections and also outlines the chief errors on this doctrine that have affected the church. While this truth is difficult to understand, it is not contradictory. Rather, it is a beautiful expression of the biblical teaching on the nature of God. B6 size, 80 pp. ISBN 978-4-264-03857-3 (Sanmi Ittai to wa Nanika) (14840) ¥900+

New Mission Opportunities Opened by Christian Relief Workers, Pauro Yokota. Japan is a land of natural and man-made disasters. After the Great Kanto Disaster 1995 and the East Japan Disaster in 2011 and the Kumamoto Earthquake in 2016, Christians banded together to help survivors and are known for staying after other volunteers left. They are called Kirisutosan (Christ ones) by the people. Their sacrificial acts of love have opened the hearts of the people to the Gospel of Christ and new churches are developing. The Japan Mission Forum held a discussion on what forms of ministry are developing. How can churches work together? Obedience to God and the Christian's Right to Resist, Shinshuu Seminar. Four authors who are specialists in history present papers that detail examples where Christian churches submitted to authorities in ways counter to the Bible's teaching. For example, churches in Nazi Germany and churches in Japan prior to WW2. They then look at present-day Japan where the government is gradually changing laws that in effect prepare for joining in war. For example, the recent security related laws. Hate speech is another recent issue. In Romans 13 Christians have a right to resist anything that opposes the Bible's teaching. 21st Century Booklet. Reverberations of Love: Teruko Enomoto Work of Life, Teruko Enomoto. Teruko Enomoto (daughter of "Little Donkey" pastor Yasurō Enomoto), who passed away in April, 2018, was a Kyodan pastor who started an AIDS ministry in Japan, and was a counselor, friend, teacher, for hundreds of persons with HIV, sexual minorities, those with various medical conditions, disabilities, drug and/or alcohol addictions, as well as many young students and foreign workers and others ostracized in society. She was the inspiration behind the Bazaar Café, a coffee house ministry in Kyoto. Ten years ago, Teruko contracted Sjogren's Syndrome, which is an autoimmune disease. At her memorial service there was a responsive reading called "The Confession of Life." Death will not have the last word. Together we declared our belief in LIFE, and the enduring power of God's love for all living things. What If a War Happens In Your Life? Hiroteru Imori. The desire of a couple who knew Hiroshima. The author's wife, Kiyoko, was in Hiroshima when the bomb struck. Although affected by the radiation, they were married and enjoyed life together. Around the age of 50 her radiation sickness became severe and their lives changed. Her faith in God was important to her and eventually she was able to turn from hatred for the pilot who dropped the bomb to forgiveness before she died. She focused on "loving your neighbor as yourself." Their desire is for peace and that such war never happens again. Includes many photos of their life. III. NEW JAPANESE BIBLE CENTER

New Japanese Bible (Shinkaiyaku) 2017

New Japanese Bible 2017 is an essentially literal translation in modern Japanese language. It is a comprehensive revision of the Shinkaiyaku Bible translation affecting 90% of the text that reflects the changes in usage in the Japanese language, reflects recent biblical scholarship, provides a careful and accurate translation of the original languages of Hebrew, Aramaic and Greek into natural Japanese, and is easily understood by listening to oral reading of the text. The new font of the written text makes it easy to read.

Combinations of Roman numerals, letters, and Arabic numerals indicate the location of a certain publication within the Catalog. Within any section or grouping of titles in the Catalog the titles are in alphabetical order, unless the title is part of a series that has some other series order.

English Title Index

Here are the STEPS TO FIND A BOOK: (1) Find its title in this index and see what the location is for the section where the book is listed in the Catalog. (For example I.C. means the book is in section I.C. of the Catalog.) (2) Turn to that location in the body of the 2016 Book Catalog and go alphabetically down the listed publications to the title you seek.

Japanese Title Index

Here are the STEPS TO FIND A BOOK: (1) Find its title in this index and see what the location is for the section in which the book is listed in the Catalog. (For example I.C. means the book is in section I.C. of the Catalog.) Also make mental note of the English Title (the first word or two is listed in this index after the location. (2) Turn to that location in the body of the 2016 Book Catalog and go alphabetically down the listed publications to the English title for the book you seek.

Author Index

(by Author, Illustrator, or Editor)

In this index a part of the English title is given to enable you to find a book at its place alphabetically in the 2012 Book Catalog. When more than one location is given, that author has more than one work published by WLPm and they are found in different locations in the Catalog. Here are the STEPS TO FIND A BOOK:
(1) Find the author's name in this index and see what the location is for the section in which a certain book by that author is listed in the Catalog. (For example I.C. means the book is in section I.C. of the Catalog.) Also make mental note of the first part of the English Title. (2) Turn to that location in the body of the 2016 Book Catalog and go alphabetically down the listed publications to the English title for the book you seek.

PAYMENT METHODS

For orders sent to English speaking staff

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

1) Payment upon delivery (C.O.D.) You pay directly to the delivery person for cost of items, consumption tax and shipping. (Japan only)

2) Postal Remittance. Our WINGS mail order department will send your order with an invoice for payment. You will pay by postal remittance (furikae) form at a convenience store or post office. (Japan only)

3) MasterCard or Visa are no longer possible for overseas customers ordering in English due to recent changes in Japan credit card processes requiring instant confirmation codes. Bank transfer to our bank is possible for a fee. Ask for bank information. (Overseas only)

4) Prepaid. US dollar checks acceptable. We will calculate the exact cost of your order including shipping, and wait until we receive your payment before sending out your order. Contact English speaking staff. (Overseas only)

Multiplying Churches in Japanese Soil

by John Wm. Mehn

Multiplying Churches in Japanese Soil,

John Wm. Mehn.

The Japanese church has experienced periods of quiet flourishing and periods of intense persecution. But it has never managed to take root as a truly indigenous church—despite great effort toward that aim. John Mehn asks "What factors have contributed to the Japanese remaining largely unreached?" Mehn examines the current state of affairs and then, with some careful analysis and case study, delves into effective models and leadership for planting churches in Japan that not only grow, but are also equipped to reproduce and multiply. Discover mission strategy, kingdom perspective, and hope for the church in Japanese soil. "46" size, 288 pp. ISBN978-4-264-04091-0 (Kyōkai Zōshoku) (07220) ¥1,700+
