I Suffer Not a Woman, Richard Clark Kroeger & Catherine Clark Kroeger. "I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence." (1 Timothy 2:12 KJV) This passage troubles those who desire greater leadership roles for women in ministry but who also want to remain loyal to Scripture. Did Paul forbid a woman to exercise her leadership and teaching gifts, or was he dealing with a particular error in the church? Paul was reacting to a specific problem that was sweeping churches: a myth, taught mostly by women, which later became a foundation for gnosticism. This book offers an in-depth look at the Greek text of 1 Timothy 2:11-15 in the context of the Pastoral Epistles and in its historical context. By illuminating the first-century culture of Ephesus, the Kroegers shed light on the ancient world thought patterns Paul faced and offer a responsible alternative understanding of this much debated passage. Where the Light Fell: A Memoir, Philip Yancey. Autobiography. Philip and his brother were raised by a widow in trailer parks in Atlanta who was part of an extreme racist fundamentalist church. Philip shares his family origins, taking us on an evocative journey from the backwoods of the Bible Belt to the bustling streets of Philadelphia; from trailer parks to church sanctuaries; from family oddballs to fire-and-brimstone preachers and childhood awakenings through nature, music, and literature. In time, the weight of religious and family pressure sent both sons on opposite paths—one toward healing from the impact of what he calls a "toxic faith," the other into a self-destructive spiral. All this is set in a turbulent time in post-World War II America. Eventually, Philip attended Bible college where he was quite rebellious until he had an encounter with God and also fell in love. I. M. Introduction to Christianity

100 Japanese Words and Phrases That Came From the Bible, Akihiko Yonekawa. The Japanese Bible has introduced words and new meanings of words into the Japanese language that were different from the commonly accepted usage before that time. For example, Francis Xavier chose "ai" to translate "love" using a meaning not common at the time. But now Japanese dictionaries reflect the Bible's usage.

Other words came in the Meiji Era through the Bible translation of that time. Some words were popularized by Christian journalists and novelists in more recent years. More examples are eternal life, Satan, Babel, Revelation, etc. It explains why at first certain kanji were chosen for the name of Christ but it is now usually written in katakana. This is a fascinating study for laymen as well as specialists by a former university professor teaching the history of the Japanese language. Forest Books. God Will Not Abandon You (Kamisama wa Misutenai) EHC/ Enoku Iwamoto. Card tract. Bible words that invigorate your soul. Card with Bible verses on the front and a message on the back. The verses quoted from the Japanese Contemporary Bible (Ribingu Baiburu) are Isaiah 43:4; Jeremiah 29:11; Lamentations 3:33; Deuteronomy 31:6 and Romans 4:25. Message by Enoku Iwamoto is entitled "God Will Not Abandon You" based on Deuteronomy 31:6 "The Lord is on your side. He will never betray you or abandon you." What we need in order to live with peace of mind is that there are people who will not give up on us no matter what failures or mistakes we make. People may be afraid of failures and mistakes because they think they will make them less worthy and others will leave them. When they feel uneasy, people want someone who will stay with them until the end. No matter what failures or mistakes we make, no matter what difficulties we face, Jesus recognizes us as valuable and precious beings and never forsakes us or abandons us. That's what the Bible claims. Jesus will walk through life with us and will never loosen his grip on us until the end, even in heaven. B6 (128mmX182mm) size card. Pack of 10. (44586) ¥400+

Very First Christmas, The (Sekai de Hajime no Kurisumasu), EHC, Norico, illus. Manga illustrated full-color Christmas tract for children. The world's first Christmas was 2,000 years ago. The shepherds were the first to celebrate the birth of Jesus. Angels told them the Savior was born in the City of David, Bethlehem. The shepherds went and found the baby in a manger, the first Christmas. Let's all celebrate. Includes a maze for fun. Pack of 50. (44580) ¥1,000+

God Who Sleeps in a Manger (Kaibaoke ni Nemuru Kami), Makoto Tokuda. Christmas cards depict a baby Jesus sleeping peacefully and Mary and Joseph surrounded by cute angels. Such cards add a homey warmth to Christmas. However the very first Christmas depicted in the Bible is a little different. Mary was pregnant with Jesus when they were told to return to Joseph's hometown and register there. There were no cars or trains. Mary set out with Joseph, probably on the back of a donkey. They finally arrived at Bethlehem, but where did she give birth? It was in a manger, or a corral, not a well-equipped hospital or even an ordinary house. The manger could have been covered with leftover food and drool from the animals. The Bible tells us that this Jesus is Christ the Savior, God Himself who came into the world. God created our world, the sun, the stars, and the entire universe, and is still ruling today. However, God, who is so big, who created the whole world became so small that he cried and had to have his diaper changed. The Bible says that there was no room for them to stay in. People in our society did not have room for Jesus. The first to accept such a Jesus were the shepherds who were told by an angel to go and meet the baby Jesus. Shepherding was generally looked down on. People who were shut out from society came first to Jesus. Jesus was the first to come to them. Jesus was rejected by society throughout his life. Many of those who came to Jesus were the poor, the sick and sinners. And society, especially the powerful people, sent such a Jesus to the cross. Christianity understands that his death was to save us from our sins. Jesus prayed for those who crucified him, "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do." But the impossible happened. According to the Bible, on the morning of the third day after his death on the cross, the tomb was empty. He rose from the dead. Did people see this in a dream or in a vision? No, indeed, he really was resurrected. His disciples had feared they too might be killed. But when they met the resurrected Jesus, they began to boldly share their joy. Witnessing the love of God that conquers even death, they were transformed.

Many of us, too, may feel tired in mind and body as if we are being forced to bear a "cross." But when we fix our eyes on Jesus we find a glimmer of hope. Through the steps from the manger to the cross, we can see the "resurrection" beyond the manger and beyond the cross. Jesus invites us to follow in his footsteps. Keep your eyes on the manger, here is salvation, here is life. The first shepherds who ran to the manger went around announcing the birth of Jesus and surprised the people. Aren't we surprised? The joy of Christmas comes with that surprise. Pack of 50. (44583) ¥1,000+

The True Joy of Easter (Iisutah no Hontō no Yorokobi), EHC. Has Easter entered Japanese culture? Theme parks have begun to incorporate "Easter" as an event, and the food industry is spreading Easter-related sweets shop dishes, so it is becoming established in Japan as a festival to enjoy with the arrival of spring. Easter is also called Resurrection Festival and is important to Christians. In Europe and the Americas and in South Korea and other places it is celebrated like Christmas, but it is not celebrated in Japan. It is a Sunday because Jesus Christ was resurrected on a Sunday. It is not celebrated on the same day every year like Christmas is but is always the first Sunday after the of the first full moon after the spring equinox. The Resurrection Event. The resurrection referred to is the resurrection of Christ. What is that? According to the Bible, Jesus Christ was 30 years old when he began a 3-year ministry in ancient Israel of healing the sick and preaching about the love of God and salvation (forgiveness of sin and eternal life). He told his disciples he would be killed and the third day afterward would rise from the dead. Religious leaders arrested him and the Roman governor had him crucified. He was buried but the leaders tried to make sure his disciples could not say he rose from death as he had said. So they put a heavy stone over the entrance to the tomb, sealed it and set a guard. But on the third day the tomb was empty and Jesus showed himself to many people. The leaders were surprised and even the disciples were afraid and did not believe at first until they actually met the resurrected Jesus. When they knew it was true they were filled with hope and with true faith and they began to tell others of Jesus Christ so the news has spread all over world. It is not easy to believe someone could die and come back to life. Even the disciples who were with him for 3 years could not believe until they met him themselves. This is an obstacle to faith for people and is hard for Japanese to believe. So why include this? Even if it is a fact and really happened 2,000 years ago, what does it mean for us? The Bible's four Gospels (two written by disciples who were with Jesus for 3 years) recount the life of Christ and testify to Christ's resurrection and the empty tomb. The early church history (Acts of the Apostles) has 13 sermons by the apostles and 11 of them testify to the resurrection. Early church preachers all stressed the importance of the resurrection and argued that it was with no doubt a fact. Quotes 1 Corinthians 15: 14-20. (Without the resurrection of Christ we are still in our sins.) Christianity began on the foundation of the resurrection of Christ. Those who believe testify that life does not end in death and have received the ultimate hope. Spring declares Easter has come. Grass and flowers burst with life. Families and friends enjoy eating together. Children make and enjoy Easter eggs.

However, I would strongly wish you to know the deeper joy hidden in the origin of the holiday which is the resurrection of Christ. Pack of 50. (44590) ¥750+

Why Is the Cross the Symbol of Christianity? (Jūjika wa Naze Kirusutokyō no Shinboru nanoka?), EHC What do you associate with Christianity? Most often it is a cross that symbolizes it. It's the wooden cross on which Jesus Christ was crucified. But why would such a cruel image become a symbol of Christianity? The four Gospels tell the story of how Jesus preached salvation, healed the sick and did many miracles and many people admired him. But jealous leaders convinced the Roman governor to condemn Jesus to death on the cross even though he was innocent of treason. Jesus knew this would happen as part of God's plan and told his disciples it would (Matthew 20:18-19). Compared to sinless Jesus, we people are all sinners (Romans 3:10) and deserve punishment of death as the wrath of a holy God against sin. Jesus showed this when he told a crowd who wanted to stone a woman caught in adultery to cast a stone if they were without sin. No one did (John 8). Jesus "came to give his life as a ransom price for many" (Matthew 20:28). God loved us so much that he sacrificed his own Son, Jesus, to take the punishment for our sin as our substitute, and all who believe receive eternal life (John 3:16). Christianity is called the religion of love. "Jesus Christ crucified" is the central message of Christianity. Pack of 50. (44587) ¥750+
