Future of Justification, The: A Response to N. T. Wright, John Piper. N. T. Wright, a world-renowned New Testament scholar, has spent years studying the apostle Paul's writings and has offered a "fresh perspective" on Paul's theology. He concluded that "the discussions of justification in much of the history of the church-certainly since Augustine-got off on the wrong foot, at least in terms of understanding Paul-and they have stayed there ever since." Wright's confidence that the church has gotten it wrong for 1,500 years has set off warning bells for Christian leaders such as pastor and New Testament scholar, John Piper. If Wright's framework for interpreting the New Testament text and his understanding of justification find a home in the church, not only could the doctrine of justification be distorted for generations to come, but the New Testament writers' original intent could be silenced. Piper is reminding all Christians to exercise great caution regarding "fresh" interpretations of the Bible and to hold fast to the biblical view of justification. A5 size, 368 pp. ISBN978-4-264-04185-6 (Ginin no Mirai) (02140) ¥3,000+

B6 size, 328 pp. ISBN978-4-264-04184-9 (Kyōfu kara no Kaihōsha Iesu) (26090) ¥2,000+

*Last Things, The, George Eldon Ladd. RIPA BOOKS reprint. There are two traditional interpretations of the relationship between the prophecies of the Old and New Testaments. One sees separate tracks for Israel and the Christian church; the other view recognizes a progressive revelation and a unity of the Testaments. Ladd holds the latter view and asserts that only as the prophecies are seen in the light of God's revelation through Christ can we clearly understand what they mean in relation to the end times. B6 size, 192 pp. ISBN978-4-264-03424-x (Shūmatsu Ron) (01053) ¥1,800+

Little Book of Biblical Justice, The, Chris Marshall. In this powerful little book Chris Marshall addresses the many complexities surrounding justice in the Bible. He addresses why the Bible, at times, seems to hold conflicting points of view, and discusses the intricacies of differentiating the cultures of biblical times with the culture of our present world today. Marshall's honest treatment of this subject is direct, yet compassionate in tone. He manages a thorny, multi-faceted subject clearly and ultimately singles out the broad areas of theological agreement among the Bible's writers. The Bible has had a profound impact on the development of Western culture. So exploring biblical perspectives on justice can help us appreciate some of the convictions and values that have helped shape Western political and judicial thought. Christians also regard the Bible as a uniquely important source of guidance on matters of belief and practice. What the Bible has to say about justice, therefore—both social justice and criminal justice—ought to be of great significance for Christian thought and action today. Yet coming to grips with biblical teaching on justice is by no means easy. Chapters here include: What is Justice?; Justice in the Biblical Worldview; The Contours of Biblical Justice, Jesus and Justice. Highly stimulating. Highly inspirational. Dr. Marshall holds the St. John's Senior Lectureship in Christian Theology at Victoria University in Wellington, New Zealand. B6 size, 128 pp. ISBN978-4-264-04240-2 (Seisho no Seigi) (02600) ¥1,300+

Living Out Paul's Gospel: Romans 5-8:4, Yoshiyuki Muchiki. Commentary on Romans chapter 5 to chapter 8 verse 4. How great is the grace that is promised to us who believe in salvation through the cross of Christ, that we should be declared righteous by faith! From this passage the author expounds on the joy of the Christian, the fight against remaining sin, the meaning of redemption, and again considers how to walk in the reality of God's grace. "4-6" size, 62 pp. ISBN978-4-264-04258-7 (Pauro no Fukuin o Ikiru: Roma 5-8:4) (02910) ¥3,000+

Mikotoba Vol. 2, Shin Nihon Sesho Kankōkai. Newest annual volume of essays on Bible translation issues written by the translators of the Shinkaiyaku 2017 Japanese Bible translation. B6 size, 288 pp. ISBN978-4-264-04252-5 (Seisho Rokuju Roku Kan o Tsuranuku Hitotsu no Monogatari) (02230) ¥1,800+

How should the kingdom of God be lived out in Christian community? The rule of God is expressed in the Old Testament law and in Jesus' recovery of its real intent in the Sermon of the Mount. religion just do not mix. Oxford professor John Lennox offers a fresh way of thinking about science and Christianity that dispels the common misconceptions about both. St. Paul Among the Philosophers, Edited by John D. Caputo and Linda Martin Alcoff. Collection of papers presented at a secular philosophy conference at Syracuse University in 2005 with "New Perspectives on Paul" New Testament scholars Ed P. Sanders and Dale B. Martin, philosophers and historians looking at the writings of the Apostle Paul. Contemporary Marxist philosophers Alain Badiou and Slavoj Žižek have become fascinated with Paul's themes of freedom and the universality of truth and make applications to politics and today's world, all the while rejecting the Christ he preached as the source of freedom and truth. But the Bible scholars and the biblical historian Paula Fredriksen and Daniel Boyarin strongly criticize Badiou and Žižek for ignoring the historical Jewish context in which Paul wrote. Philosopher Richard Kearney also contributes along with the editors. Caputo's introduction is a masterful summary of the issues raised. Includes roundtable discussion. No evangelical scholars are included in this discussion in this book, but it allows evangelicals to find out what others are saying about Paul. Cooperative publishing/distribution with WLP. ## I. F. Evangelism, Disciplemaking, Pastoral & Educational Ministry

Emotionally Healthy Woman, Geri Scazzero. Eight things you have to quit to change your life. Geri Scazzero knew there was something desperately wrong with her life. She finally told her husband, "I quit," and left the thriving church he pastored, beginning a journey that transformed her and her marriage for the better. This book is for every woman who thinks, "I can't keep pretending everything is fine!" When you quit those things that are damaging to your soul or the souls of others, you are freed up to choose other ways of being and relating that are rooted in love and lead to life. As the head of a seminary, the author stopped traditional seminary education at his school and shifted to church based Christian education in which pastors train believers in theology and Christian living. After the March 11, 2011 East Japan Disaster the seminary became the base camp for church based relief work to meet the needs of the people in the area. How can they overcome the difficult issues of pastoring, be refreshed and thrive in ministry and in life? Following recovery from his own burnout, the author has had many years of experience in helping Japanese pastors thrive. Seminary teachers, denomination leaders and church elders are responsible to care for pastors through the four seasons of ministry: Spring: beginning when they receive the call and are in seminary preparing; Summer: the middle years; Autumn: later years heading for retirement; Winter: retirement. Like an ekiden relay race, pastors need to pass the baton on to the next generation and relinquish leadership eventually. Shalom: The Bible's Word for Salvation, Justice & Peace, Perry B. Yoder. The biblical challenge of shalom is one which ought to draw all Christians together in a common struggle so that God's will might be done and God's kingdom might come on earth as it is in heaven. People, as well as structures, need to be transformed. People who are caught in oppressive structures need to be liberated from the values and perspectives inculcated by these structures. The shalom maker, as a result, is involved in a mission of conversion--converting people to a new understanding and way of life. This conversion, based on God's love for them in Jesus, frees them from old patterns of thought. wondered whether she could believe in anything again. When she contracted spinal tuberculosis and suffered, she met a fellow patient who radiated love. ### Hosokawa Gracia Stood Firm in Her Faith in Christ

(Kirisuto e no Shinkō o Tsuranuita Hosokawa Garasha), Yoshimasa Moribe.

This tract introduces the life of Tama Gracia Hosokawa who was the daughter of a rebellious samurai general, Akechi Mitsuhide. Akechi is the subject of a drama on NHK TV in 2020. His daughter Tama lived in a world disrupted by wars, but she became a Christian convert to seek peace and hope in the chaotic period. Christianity was brought to Japan in 1549 by Francis Xavier who taught that God loves all people unconditionally and He gave Christ His Son to this world to free people from sin and death. Tama heard the teaching from Christian samurai lord Takayama Ukon. The teachings of Christ, grace versus works, stood out in distinct contrast to Tama's Zen Buddhist upbringing. She confessed her sins and trusted Christ and received baptism in 1587 and took the name Gracia meaning "grace of God." Caught in the fighting surrounding her husband's clan, she faced death bravely with the hope of heaven. Quotes Ecclesiastes 3:1-2. Christianity teaches the good news that there is a world of joy beyond death. An interesting story for history lovers. Pack of 50.

There Is Someone Who Promised a Place of Contented Living (Anjū no Sumai o Yakusokushite Kudasaru Kata ga Iru), EHC.

Tract for leading elderly people to Christ. Large print. Is there a place of peaceful living? In this world there really is no place where we can truly live in complete contentment and peace. But there is hope. There is someone who loves you and has provided an eternal dwelling place for you. Quotes John 14:3. The person who said this is Jesus Christ. He was God who became a human and was born on the first Christmas 2,000 years ago and lived on this earth. Then he bore the sin of all people and on the cross, as our substitute, he received the punishment for our sinful hearts and actions by dying in our place. In heaven there is an eternal dwelling place. Jesus rose from the dead on the third day. This is Christ's resurrection, Easter. Christ promised those who believe in him would live even if they die. Quotes John 11:25. When our life on this earth is over, we can live forever with God in heaven. Heaven is a wonderful world. Quotes Revelation 21:3,4. Won't you believe in Jesus Christ? Believing in Jesus Christ means believing in his words and the salvation of the cross. Prayer for salvation. Go to a nearby church. What Do the Marvels of the Natural World Reveal? (Shizenkai no Fushigi wa Nani o Arawasu?), EHC/Bible Learning. First Encounter with the Bible Series #2. "Science is the figuring out of the works of the Creator God in nature."- Galileo Galilei. This tract explores God's creation and science. Galileo, who was called "the father of modern science" and "the father of observational astronomy" was also a faithful Christian who used science to reveal God's creation and its intelligent, mathematical design. As examples of that design, it shows how Fibonacci numbers appear in patterns of nature, and how some moths and butterflies are protected from predators by the design on their wings that looks exactly like the eyes of an owl. Many scientists agree with Galileo and believe there is a designer who is the Creator God. This article was taken from Bible Guide MOOK on the Bible Learning website at biblelearning.net. Pack of 50. (44528) ¥750+

What is "Believing in God"? (Kami o Shinjirutte, Dō iu Koto?), Yuki Morizumi, text and torn paper art

The artist uses torn rice paper (washi) to make her pictures. She tells her story of how she came to trust in Christ and learned what faith is. She first encountered the idea of God and the Bible through books by foreign authors like Dickens, Tolstoy, Hugo, etc. While she was studying design she worked as a tutor for a family with handicapped children, attended church and gradually came to see having faith was a good thing. In her studies she chose to pursue art made from torn paper. She liked to see foreign movies that sometimes included God in the picture. She realized Christian's believed in the historically real death and resurrection of Jesus. She realized she needed to know much more about the Bible to make sense of it all. In a Bible Introduction class she was struck by the Romans 7:15 statement, "I do not do what I want, but I do the very thing I hate." She was trying to improve herself in preparation for marriage. She recognized she could not become the good person she wanted to be. The Bible says her egoism was sin. Instead of a subject to study, she began to read the Bible as God's personal letter to her. She eventually chose to become a Christian in a relationship with God whom she met in the Bible. She published a book with her testimony and art illustrations entitled Amazing Grace. She does not believe in order to escape life's problems. She relies on God in every area of life through all circumstances. 105x180mm size. Pack of 50. (44522) ¥1,000+

What is Easter? Be Blessed (Iisutah tte? Be Blessed), Ralph and Miho Clatworthy. Recently you can see Easter mentioned in Japanese stores. Many countries have Easter traditions, some that include coloring eggs red. But what does it mean? Two thousand years ago there was a man in Israel who performed miracles, healed the sick, expelled demons, and fed thousands. His name is Jesus Christ. He never did wrong and always helped people. But the Jewish leaders were jealous and condemned him to die on a cross. His body was put in a tomb with a big rock as a door.

Three days later his disciples discovered that his body had disappeared from the tomb. He had come alive again. His resurrection is a real event in history. Many people saw him alive, including 500 at one time. Christians the world over celebrate Jesus' resurrection at Easter. The egg represents the truth that believing in Jesus gives us new life. The red color represents the blood of Jesus that he shed when he died on the cross. All people are separated from God because of our sinful hearts. The Bible says God loved us so much that He sent His Son Jesus who died on the cross to save all people from their sin by taking the punishment for our sin in our place. Then he rose to be our savior. Easter is not just in the past. Jesus gives us hope in this life now. Quotes John 11:25; Romans 6:4; John 3:16. God wants to forgive your sins, give you new life and fill your heart with his love. Believe in Jesus and enjoy new life. Prayer for receiving Christ. If you pray this prayer, go to a nearby church and talk to the pastor and enjoy reading the Bible every day. Then you will have not just a Happy Easter, but an eternal Happy Easter Life. 100x200mm size. Pack of 50. (44497) ¥750

New edition. Brief, full color booklet for sharing the gospel with non-Christian Japanese. It introduces the Bible, the Jewish people, their history, and prophecies of Jesus. What Salvation Does the Bible Point To? Saved From What? (Seisho no Shimesu Sukui to wa Nani kara no Sukui nanoka?) EHC/Bible Learning.

First Encounter with the Bible Series #3. What is religion? Worship of a god or supernatural being who is holy. People turn to religion to find the purpose and meaning of life, peace of heart, guidance and good fortune. Saved from Sin. We all have had thoughts and actions, but more than that we ignore God and try to live on our own without Him, which separates us from our Creator God who is holy. Sin of the first humans Adam and Eve in Genesis 3 became part of our human nature. Sin results in death and judgement for all (Hebrews 9:27). Jesus died on the cross as our substitute to take our sin and punishment so we could be forgiven.

How can the death of one person help many others? An example is the character Nagano from Ayako Miura's novel Shiokari Pass who gave his life to stop a runaway train and save many. Eternal Life. Jesus rose bodily from death and says he is the resurrection and the life (John 11:25). He gives eternal life with God to all who believe (John 3:16). So we can live with God now and, when this life is over, forever with Him. Adapted from BibleLearning Seisho Guide MOOK. Includes QR code link to OIKOS web site for those who want know more. Pack of 50. (44547) ¥750+

This Christmas Will Change Your Future (Mirai o Kaeru Kurisumasu), Takashi Yoshida.

Tract for teens and adults. While studying in the U.S. the author heard someone say "Bah Humbug." Confused about the meaning, he eventually discovered it was what Scrooge said in Charles Dickens' "A Christmas Carol" to show his distaste for Christmas celebrations. Many people do not get what the Christmas fuss is all about. Growing up, the author thought

Christmas was about eating delicious food, eating cake and buying and getting presents. It was something just for kids to enjoy. But in university he started going to church and reading the Bible and discovered for the first time that Christmas is much more. It is the celebration of the birth of the Savior Jesus Christ. He learned the Christmas songs he had sung as a child, without understanding the meaning, were hymns of great joy about Jesus who was born to save everyone. The joy of the church people became his joy and he became a Christian. Scrooge encountered 3 ghosts who took his thoughts off himself to others. He could not change the past but could change the future. He was transformed and showed kindness to others. Quotes Luke 2:10-11. In Christmas God gave an event of great joy to all people. God loves all, even people like Scrooge. So we need to love each other. Won't you go to church this Christmas? If so, you will not say "Bah Humbug" but will say "Merry Christmas." Full color. ### Author Index

In this index a part of the English title is given to enable you to find a book at its place alphabetically in the 2020 Book Catalog. When more than one location is given, that author has more than one work published by WLPM and they may be found in different locations in the Catalog.

Here are the STEPS TO FIND A BOOK (1) Find the author's name in this index and see what the location is for the section in which a certain book by that author is listed in the Catalog. (For example I.C. means the book is in section I.C. of the Catalog.) Also make a mental note of the first part of the English title. (2) Turn to that location in the body of the 2020 Catalog and go alphabetically down the listed publications to the English title for the book you seek.
